Good afternoon, Ms. Hanson.

Pursuant your public records request below and in accordance with F.S. Ch. 119, please be advised the University of North Florida has no documents responsive to your request for data on banned websites and/or services on the University of North Florida's networks. UNF, however, blocks the use of certain technologies on UNF owned networks and devices as required by Florida Board of Governor regulation 3.0075. The blocked technologies may be found on the SUS Prohibited Technologies list (link below). Additionally, UNF blocks network traffic from sanctioned countries in compliance with United States export control laws. Lastly, UNF may temporarily block network traffic from specific countries in response to ongoing cybersecurity threats.

Subject: Florida Sunshine Request for Blacklisted Services

To whom it may concern,

This email serves as a request for public records under the Florida Public Records and Sunshine Laws requesting data on banned websites and/or services on University of North Florida's network(s) and, if present, reasons why they are blocked.

This request is intended on behalf of the public for faculty, staff, and students at University of North Florida to be aware of what they are and are not able to access. To that extent, such any search fees should be waived. If the fees cannot be waived, please notify if search fees exceed $20.

Any delays beyond those necessary for the actual retrieval of the document are in violation of Florida's Public Records and Sunshine Law, as stated in Tribune Company v. Cannella, 48 So. 2D 1075, 1078 (Fla. 1984). Furthermore, computerized public records are governed by the same rules as paper documents, as stated in Seigle v. Barry, 422 So. 2D 63, 65 (Fla. 4th DCA 1982).

This request includes every person who has custody of the requested documents as stated in Florida Statutes Section 119.07(1)(a). This request also extends to memos sent interoffice and intra-office from one public employee to another in relation to the documents requested, as stated in Shevin v. Byron, Harless, Schaffer, Reid and Associates, Inc., 379 So. 2D 633 (Fla. 1980).

If portions of the requested records are closed or exempt, please segregate the closed/exempt portions and provide the rest.

If you have any other questions about the terms of my request, please feel free to contact me.

Thanks for your time,

Monica Hanson
