To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to express my utmost disappointment, bewilderment, and dismay at the statement released by Wagner, Foley, and Do. My two high school aged-teens read their words and were scared to attend school for fear of backlash by fellow students. WORDS MATTER. The blatant connection drawn between terrorism, extremism, and the beautiful religion of Islam is dangerous, reckless, and completely unethical. I cannot believe so-called educated and professional leadership could publish this statement publicly.

I demand that the statement be rescinded immediately and reparations initiated. Muslims make up a large percentage of OC school populations, and their statement puts them all in jeopardy, both physically and emotionally.
